“ In learning of Laurie's passing from this earth thru Denise Lundin, my first and continuing memory is the joy of being able to stand beside Laurie in Buena football stadium when she gave her heart to Jesus Christ at age 13 during a city wide evangelism conference. Walking together as she made her announcement to follow Christ public, I know Laurie secured her place in Heaven. The photo here is beautiful!

“ Laurie was one of those friends who you can't forget. We shared junior high and high school memories, went to the same church and laughed at all those silly adolescent things we thought so funny. I feel bad that we didn't remain in better contact although we had posted a bit on Facebook where she shared some beautiful family shots of her brother's home. I hope she is watching those she loved as their special angel and that one day we can meet again.

“ My deepest sympathy to Laurie's family and friends. We were quite close in jr. high, high school and college. A flood of memories of our times together has hit me since learning of her untimely passing. We shared wonderful experiences as girls and then young women trying to find our way in the world. I regret not staying in better touch in our adult years. She was a truly lovely person inside and out and I'm very sad she left us so early.
